

TRIBUNAL OF THE DIOCESE OF MEMPHIS IN TENNESSEE
NULLITY OF MATRIMONY

MANDATE OF PROCURATOR AND ADVOCATE

Inasmuch as I, _____, seek the assistance of a procurator and an advocate to represent me and to defend my rights, I hereby appoint and mandate him/her to present a libellus on my behalf to the tribunal of the Diocese of Memphis in Tennessee and, if the libellus is accepted by the Court, to serve as my procurator and advocate in first and second instance.

(advocate's name)

As procurator, the above-named will represent me, present recourses to the tribunal, receive notifications from the tribunal, inform me of the state of the case (cf. DC, article 104 § 2), and lodge appeal, unless I decide otherwise (cf. DC, article 107 § 2). As advocate, the above-named will defend me in this process (DC, article 104 § 2).

In addition, by special provision, I give my procurator-advocate the right to renounce validly any action, instance, or juridic acts, and to do, in general, those things for which the law requires a special mandate (cf. canon 1485; DC, article 107 § 1).
