Deacon Casey Weber

Deacon at St. Ann’s Catholic Church in Bartlett, Tenn.

Home Parish is St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church in Cordova, Tenn.

Deacon Casey Weber will be ordained by Bishop David Talley into the Presbyterate within the Catholic Diocese of Memphis at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception on June 5, 2021.

Deacon Casey Charles Weber was born in Hartford, Conn., and raised in Shaftsbury, Vt. He is the middle child of three children to PJ and Linda Weber. Deacon Casey and his family attended St. John the Baptist Catholic Church in North Bennington, Vt. He attended Shaftsbury Elementary School, Mount Anthony Union Middle School and Mount Anthony Union High School, graduating in 2006. From there, he pursued studies in Chemical Engineering at Christian Brothers University in Memphis, Tenn.

After graduating from Christian Brothers University in 2010, Deacon Casey worked for five years as a Chemical Engineer. Specifically, he worked at Logical System, Inc., as a contractor. During this time, he was a parishioner at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church in Cordova, Tenn., where he was highly active in the Youth Ministry and Parish Religious Education (PRE) programs.

It was at this time Deacon Casey discerned a call to the priesthood. He began his formation for the diocesan priesthood with the Catholic Diocese of Memphis under Bishop Terry Steib at Saint Meinrad Seminary in St. Meinrad, Ind.

After earning his Master’s degree in Catholic studies of Philosophy in 2017, Deacon Casey continued his formation at Notre Dame Seminary in New Orleans, La. In 2021, he earned his Master of Arts in Theological Studies from Notre Dame Seminary after completing a thesis in Moral Theology.

Deacon Casey will be Celebrant at his first Mass as a Priest on Sunday, June 6, at St. Francis of Assisi Church, 10:30am. He will then return to Vermont to celebrate with his family a Mass of Thanksgiving at St. John the Baptist Church.

Effective July 1, 2021, Father Casey Weber will be assigned as Parochial Vicar at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Memphis.
