

Creation

We thank God for our beautiful world by caring for the people, environment and animals.

Planting a garden, throwing away trash, feeding our pets are some of the ways we care for the earth and its creatures.

In Genesis chapter 2, God told Adam to care for the garden and name all the animals.

