

STEWARDSHIP OF HOSPITALITY

Stewardship of hospitality means welcoming and being kind to others.

Jesus wants us to treat everyone with kindness, like they belong. We show hospitality when we smile, share, or invite others to join us. Being friendly and including others is one way to love like Jesus.

At school, church, or home—we can always make space for someone new. When we welcome others, we are really welcoming Christ!