

More on Our Diocesan School of Hispanic Leadership

Father Rubén and OLS

The first session will take place this weekend, September 18-19, featuring Father Rubén Villalón at our beautiful Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church, 3700 Thomas Street, Memphis.

- Friday Evening, September 18, 6:00pm-8:00pm
- Saturday Morning/Afternoon, September 19, 8:00am-4:00pm

Formation and Tools

This new program offers integral formation for Hispanic Ministry, providing practical tools to help many parishioners to:

- Build and strengthen parish ministries
- Serve more effectively in current ministry
- Develop pastoral leadership skills
- Learn pastoral planning and organization
- Use Microsoft and digital tools for ministry
- Grow in faith, communications, teamwork, and service

Monthly and Ongoing

All classes will be offered in Spanish, with monthly formation sessions and ongoing accompaniment from experienced professionals, ministry leaders, and Priests who will help guide participants throughout the program.

Register and Flyer

Whether already serving or feel called to become a leader, click on the button below or scan the QR code in the flyer below to register—and invite others to join. Let us grow together as Catholic faith leaders, serving Christ and His Church.

All Glory to God!
